Services this summer

Advance registration will be required to attend all services due to limitations on the number of people permitted in the buildings.

Email or phone the church office to book your place.

We hope to continue services on-line for those unable to attend in person.

Services marked as Holy Communion will be replaced with worship services until Communion can be resumed.

Children's services will continue on Zoom throughout the summer holidays

Evening services are taking place at the Sacré Coeur Church, Feierabendstrasse 68, Basel until further notice

Please check the bulletin each week for latest updates on locations and details of services and activities

Dates for your diary
